

HIGHLIGHTS IN AND AROUND MANNHEIM/HEIDELBERG

Water Tower Mannheim

The water tower (Wasserturm) is the landmark of the city of Mannheim. The tower - flanked by green spaces, promenades, water fountains and sandstone sculptures from Greek mythology - is surrounded by Germany's largest contiguous Art Nouveau complex. Around the complex under the arcades, you will find some small cafés and restaurants.

© Rudis-Fotoseite.de / pixelio.de

Luisenpark Mannheim

Relaxation in the countryside?
Luisenpark is a green oasis in the heart of the city and - with its diversity of flora and fauna - is considered one of the most beautiful parks in Europe.

© mic.ro / pixelio.de

Q6/Q7 Shopping Center Mannheim

Are you in the mood for shopping?
The state-of-the-art shopping center Q6/Q7 offers over 65 brands from fashion to food on three floors. The quadrants Q6 and Q7 are connected by a skywalk.

© Fotostudio Johannes Vogt

Art Gallery Mannheim

The Art Gallery Mannheim (Kunsthalle) is a museum of modern and contemporary art with particular emphasis on sculptures and plastic art.

© Kunsthalle Mannheim / Lukac Diehl 2017

Museums in Mannheim

Technoseum

200 years of technical and social history and over 100 experiment stations are waiting for you to be discovered.

© TECHNOSEUM, Zoey Braun

Reiss-Engelhorn Museum

Outstanding cultural highlights in four exhibition halls make up the Reiss-Engelhorn Museum, also called by its short form "rem". It is a lively museum district in the heart of the "City of Squares".

© rem, Maria Schumann

Planetarium Mannheim

A trip to the moon? A stroll across the Milky Way? At the planetarium, you can immerse yourself in the fascinating world of stars, planets and galaxies.

© Ralph-Thomas Kühnle / pixelio.de

Telecommunication Tower Mannheim

Two elevators transport visitors to the viewing platform with a revolving restaurant at a height of 125 meters. Fantastic view over Mannheim guaranteed!! With a total height of almost 218 meters, the telecommunication tower is not only the highest building of the city but also one of the highest telecommunication towers in Germany.

© Dieter Schütz / pixelio.de

Mannheim Baroque Palace

With its impressive size, the Mannheim Baroque Palace is not only the largest baroque palace in Germany but also the second largest baroque palace complex in Europe.

© Stefan R. / pixelio.de

Heidelberg Castle (with the German Pharmacy Museum and the funicular)

The Heidelberg Castle is one of the most famous castle ruins of the world and the landmark of the city of Heidelberg. A ride with the funicular is a great experience and can be continued to the summit of the King's Throne (Königsstuhl). The German Pharmacy Museum is located at the Heidelberg Castle.

© Mario Heinemann / pixelio.de

Philosophers' Path Heidelberg

The Philosophers' Way (Philosophen-weg) is the most beautiful place to enjoy the romantic panorama of the city of Heidelberg. With its gardens, benches and views, it takes around one hour to stroll along the 3-km-long promenade.

© Marco Barnebeck / pixelio.de